This reading guide is designed to serve as a companion to Sunday's sermon. The reading for each day corresponds to the topic discussed during that week's message. Our hope is that you will continue to reflect on God's word and apply it to your life throughout the week.

Take some time each day to read the passage and apply the 6 Arrows of Bible Reading below.

6 ARROWS OF BIBLE READING

Observation

What does this passage say?

What does this passage mean to its original audience?

Interpretation

What does this passage tell us about God?

What does this passage tell us about man?

Application

What does this passage demand of me?

How does this passage change the way I relate to people?

The questions that go with each arrow will help you think through each passage of the Bible, enabling you to understand, interpret, and apply the passage to your life. We recommend that you write down your response to each arrow and then allow what you have learned to prompt your prayer as you finish your quiet time.

We are praying that this companion guide will be a fruitful resource for you throughout this series!
